

STERLING ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING, P.C.

Jessica Sgambati
Environmental Technician

Education: Bachelors of Science in Environmental Science
State University of New York at Plattsburgh
May 2005

Additional Education: William H. Miner Agricultural Institute in Chazy, NY-
An advanced scientific research facility.
Performed outdoor fieldwork, gained experience with the water quality program known as STELLA, and conducted an agricultural engineering independent study

Experience: June 2006 to Present, Sterling Environmental Engineering,
P.C.

Miss Sgambati is an environmental technician with experience using water quality probes, collecting groundwater, surface water and soil sampling, performing environmental monitoring, creating water quality models, conducting explosive gas surveys, providing legal assistance to attorneys and preparing post-closure environmental monitoring reports.

Miss Sgambati also has 40-hour HAZWOPER certification.